After the Floods...

While the floods did not affect our members directly, some family and friends have not been so lucky.

A team of us went to Ipswich to help out the daughter of our President-Elect, Ian Ruffles (see photo). Her home had been inundated up to the gutters and everything inside was ruined. All the built-in cupboards needed to be torn out and, among many other things, she lost a beautiful piano. It was reduced to thousands of pieces. The glue could not withstand submersion for days in the swirling, toxic waters.
